Rocking a Prisoner
New Prices, New Ideas
Our Important Glands
Political Plans

BY AUTHOR EUGENE
IT APPEARS the killing of 20-year-old Hyman Stark by Long Pearl, a "rocker" treatment, involving some unusual features of the "rocker" process. It is alleged that a police official, second in rank, put one foot on the top of Stark's stomach, the other on his head, and rocked from foot to head between times, "Now confess!"

NOT LONG AGO New York's judicial powers would have shuddered had they suggested that private car corporations should be taken over by the city. But "circumstances alter cases." The value of a car has dropped pitifully and now, travel has fallen and now, private ownership of the car is a burden. The city's ownership of street cars, elevated railroads, subways, to reduce the financial strain of that particular burden.

DR. A. S. BLUMGARTEN says general orators of the future may describe the glands of their candidates instead of describing their own qualities. The "keynote" will announce "a man who" as one with marvelous adrenal and pituitary glands.

THE glands are as important to body, brain, health and efficiency as the battery to a searchlight or motor.

MR. GREEN of the American Federation of Labor says it will be campaign. The executive committee expresses its dislike of both party platforms. The important thing in the coming elections is the political plans of labor

MURDER COUNT FILED AGAINST 4 N. Y. POLICE

Warrants Out for 13 Officers
After Probe of Third Degree Slaying.

ORDERED TO JAIL CELLS

All of Defendants Charged with Conspiracy To Obstruct Justice.

By The Associated Press
MINEOLA, N. Y., July 20.—Warrants were issued for 13 county policemen today in connection with the death of Hyman Stark, a prisoner, after lengthy police "questioning." Four of the warrants charged second degree murder.

The officers charged with second degree murder are Lieut. Jesse Mayforth and Sergeants Leslie Pearlsall, Harry Zander, and Charles Wesser.

All 13 policemen were charged with conspiracy to obstruct justice and seven of them were charged with second degree assault. Deputy Police Chief Frank Tappen, was named in two warrants, once for neglect of duty and again as having been an accessory to the third degree beating of Stark which caused his death.

Arrested in Court
All 13 were arrested in the courtroom where a John Doe hearing into the slaying was in progress.
They were turned over to the sheriff, who was instructed to treat them just like any other prisoners.
Bail was fixed by Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, who presided at the hearing and signed the warrants, at $10,000 each for the officers charged with second degree murder. Bail of $2,500 each was set for the assault charges and bail of $1,500 was fixed on the conspiracy charges and the neglect of duty charge against Tappen.

The men charged with second degree assault are detectives Patrick Stanley, Marcel Chagnon, George Hutchison, Thomas Do-nanza, and Joseph Hyzenksi and Patrolmen Lams and Harry Lilje-gren.

Detective Hyzenksi is the son of Mrs. Valeria Hyzenksi who was assaulted by four robbers who entered her home and beat her unconscious when they found only four dollars. Stark and three other men were arrested last Friday and Stark died of a fractured larynx late that night.

May Lose Jobs
The grand jury will meet tomorrow and Justice Steinbrink suggested to District Attorney Elvin Edwards it consider perjury indictments as well as indictments for murder, assault, conspiracy and neglect of duty. As soon as his subordinates were arrested Abram Skidmore, chief of Nassau county police, announced a police trial would be started Monday looking toward their possible removal from the force.

Boy Arms for Struggle but
Burglar Runs

JOHN DODD JR., 16, armed himself and went in search of the intruder when the home of his father, Dr. J. A. Dodd of 387 Franklin street, was entered last night.

Although alone in the house,
John Jr. obtained his father's army revolver and started downstairs when he heard a prowler on the first floor of the home at 10 p. m. yesterday.

The keen eye of the burglar saw him from combat with the boy. As the boy started down stairs the intruder ran from the house, leaving a ransacked drawer of a library table open.

POLICE STOP BONUS MARCH

Three Arrests Made as Group Attempts Approach to White House.

AREA IS UNDER GUARD

President Works in Office; Unaware Demonstration Is In Progress.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Three members of the bonus seeking army were taken into custody today as the aftermath of an abortive attempt by a large group of veterans to approach the White House.

John Pace, a leader of the radical group of ex-service men, was one of those arrested after a mild scuffle with police. He was charged with parading without a permit and disorderly conduct.

A companion, whose name was given as Beckworth Johnson, was booked on the same charge. The third was not immediately doctored.

Shunted away from the executive mansion by a heavy screen of guards, the arrests came after Pace again attempted to lead his group toward it.

There were several hundred in the group which started toward the White House but most of the veterans dispersed good naturedly after police intervention. They told authorities they were on a "right seeing tour" but the former took no chances.

Area Surrounded
Officers completely surrounded the area about the executive mansion and the space they guarded was cleared of spectators. It was the second time in two days that extra guards had been rushed to the White House on reports of an impending demonstration.

Meantime, President Hoover, apparently unaware of the flurry, worked at his desk and a line of ex-service men again formed at the veterans' bureau seeking transportation home.

Secret service officers detailed to guard President Hoover ordered the gates to the White House grounds locked to the public.

About 150 heavily armed police,
some of them with tear gas bombs, were stationed in and around the White House.

In addition to the police inside the grounds and the reserves, metropolitan and park police were stationed at intervals of about 100 feet around the entire 16 acres of the White House grounds.

Martial Rule Declared
To Stop German Rioting

Berlin and Brandenburg Province Under Military Law; Virtual Dictatorship Exists in Entire Prussia; Death Toll Already Over 100.

By The Associated Press
BERLIN, July 20.—The German government, with old-time military precision, moved swiftly this morning to establish a virtual dictatorship over the huge state of Prussia and to clamp down martial law on the city of Berlin and the province of Brandenburg.
The first action was taken under an emergency decree issued by President Paul von Hindenburg this morning. It followed critical pressure upon the government to stop the political riots which have taken a toll of more than 100 dead and 1,200 injured in the last three weeks.

Chancellor Franz von Papen was appointed commissioner of Prussia and Lord Mayor Franz Bracht of Essen was named the chancellor's assistant and given the dictatorial power, in von Papen's name.

The decree of martial law was issued when Karl Severing, Prussian minister of interior, declined to accept the president's first emergency decree as binding and declared he would yield only to force. General Gerd von Rundstedt, commander of the third Reichswehr (army) district was placed in charge of Berlin and Brandenburg under the martial law order. He was also given command of all police forces in this area.

Chancellor von Papen decided for the present at least, to remove himself from the scene.

Five ministers and eleven undersecretaries were displaced in the shakeup. Mussolini retained for himself two of the vacated portfolios.

The five ministers who resigned were Grandi; Alfredo Rocco, minister of justice;
Antonio Mosconi,
minister of education, and Gus-eppe Bottai, minister of corporations.

Mussolini, who already was minister of interior as well as premier, kept for himself the ministries of foreign affairs and corporations.

Among the eleven undersecretaries who were displaced were Il Duce's own right hand man, Francesco Giunta.

Best known of all of them
throughout the world is the dapper, young, black-bearded Signor Grandi, whose name has figured in most of the international affairs which have played such a part in the world stage during the past year.

He came to the United States
last year to confer with President Hoover following visits by Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain and Premier Laval of France, and was greeted here with honors equal to the heads of the other two governments.

Takes Over Two Posts
Mussolini who held the premiership and six ministries before the present cabinet was appointed in 1929, took back about half the power he had then with his reassumption today. Besides assuming the ministries of foreign affairs and corporations, he took over all relations with the Vatican and all religious affairs, by detaching the department of cults from the ministry of justice and adding it to the ministry of interior under himself.

victory in court here today. After it was unable to agree on a charge

JURY MAY GET CASE TODAY; ALIBI OFFERED

Confession Denied by Sanders; Says He Never Took Part in Holdup.

HEARING MOVES RAPIDLY

Schmidt, Witness of Slaying, Unable To Positively Identify Defendant.

The murder case of Charles Sanders, colored, charged with the first degree murder of Green G.
Miller at DeCliff last New Year's day was expected to be in the hands of a jury for a decision late this afternoon.

The trial progressed rapidly today, the prosecution resting its case at noon and the defense at 2:15 p. m.
The introduction of a lengthy confession which police said was made by Sanders and Sanders' denial from the stand that he ever confessed featured the testimony given today.

Eight Persons Testify Sanders took the stand as the last witness for his own defense.
He repeatedly denied, both in direct and cross examinations, that he ever had made a confession stating that he accompanied William Carter, 18, colored, during an attempted holdup of Miller's grocery at DeCliff last Jan. 1, when the aged grocer was killed.

Eight colored persons from Columbus were called to the stand to testify that Sanders spent New Year's day in that city. They also vouched for his reputation as a good citizen. The alibi and character witnesses for Sanders were Levi Butler, Isiah Butler, Mary
Twelve, James E. Ramsey, Beulah
Ramsey, Walter Jackson, Varney
Jeder and Jim Conklin.

Following a brief recess at 2:30
p. m., attorneys were expected to call several witnesses for rebuttal examination, and to argue their cases before the jury. After the court's charge to the jury on the law affecting the case, the jury will retire to deliberate.

The state rested at noon.
Prosecutor R. M. Wilhelm called six witnesses to the stand this morning to testify that Sanders had confessed to accompanying William Carter, 18, also colored, in the attempted grocery holdup during which Miller was murdered.

Newark Grocer Testifies Witnesses testifying late this morning included R. E. Kemp, Newark grocer, who was wounded in an exchange of shots with William Carter during an attempted holdup there in January. Kemp testified that Sanders accompanied Carter in the attempted holdup and pointed out Sanders in the courtroom.

Shirley C. C. Ewe, Chief Thomas
T. Wilson of the Newark police, Chief Curtis L. Berry of Newark detectives were called to substantiate testimony of Police Captain Ira Shrock, whose testimony took up nearly half of the morning session of the trial.

The complete, signed confession of Sanders, made to local police, in which he admitted accompanying Carter in the attempted holdup at DeCliff, was read to the jury by Police Captain Ira Shrock, who was on the witness stand nearly an hour this morning.

Attorney Frank Wiedemann, representing Sanders, objected to the introduction of the confession as testimony on the grounds that it might have been obtained under undue influence. After numerous objections to statements pertaining to the confession, Judge George H.
Beedfield ordered the jury to retire and the attorneys argued the admissibility of the confession before the court.

Captain Shrock testified to the court that the confession was made voluntarily by Sanders after William Carter, who admitted firing the shots that killed Miller, had made a confession in which Sanders was named. After examining the testimony, the court held that there was no evidence of undue influence having been brought to bear on Sanders to obtain the confession, and held that it was admissible.

The jury was called in and Captain Shrock told in detail how the confession was obtained, and read the entire text of Sanders' signed statement.

Sanders, he said, was brought to the court.

DEFERS OK OF RELIEF BILL

Hoover Withholds Approval
Until Finance Corp. Reorganization Completed.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 20.—President Hoover has delayed his signing of the $122,000,000 relief bill.
The White House announced the postponed pen work tentatively set for yesterday, would let the President finish plans for reorganization of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, which will handle the huge emergency fund.

This reorganization was to include the appointment of successors to Governor Eugene Meyer of the Federal Reserve board and Paul Reuter, farm loan commissioner, whose retirements as directors of the corporation the bill made mandatory, at the President's request.

Mr. Hoover had given no advance indication as to whom he would select for these posts. Owen D.
Young, industrialist, and Wilton W. Mills, Detroit banker, had been discussed by others.

The corporation itself had decided to discard last year's expense of $100,000,000 for the relief of destitution and $32,000,000 for public works, the latter including $12,000,000 which can be used to match state highway expenditures.

There were indications that states might apply very soon for more than $200,000,000 of the $300, 000,000 sum as follows:

Arizona, Illinois, New York and Pennsylvania $11,000,000 each;
Michigan $11,000,000; Indiana $5, 000,000; Kansas $2,750,000; Missouri and Utah $2,000,000; Idaho $1,500, 000; West Virginia $500,000.

There were forecasts that the following states would not ask relief.

The play will be one of two to be given by these entertainers on that day. At the night session the players will present "Chicken Feed" or "Wages for Wives."

Both plays are humorous and present situations which promise entertainment for both adult and juvenile members of the family.

The plot of "Your Uncle Dudley" centers around the romance of Dudley Dixon, a lovable bachelor and leading citizen of the city in which he resides. He loves a nice, Swedish girl named Christina Sedholm, but his home "set-up" will not permit the marriage until something has been done about his dictatorial sister, Mabel, and her two children, Ethelyn and Cyril. Dudley has supported the trio ever since he attained man's estate and Mabel has made a situation within the home that is becoming unbearable to Dudley. His chance comes when Ethelyn aspires to win $5,000 in an operatic contest staged by local music lovers and he uses every effort to see the contest through. Ethelyn doesn't go to Paris because she is in love with Robert Kirby but Mabel does and here things begin to right themselves for Dudley.

"Chicken Feed" is a story of three wives and their husbands who are living in peaceful bliss until one of the wives conceives the brilliant idea of demanding "wages" for her services as a housewife. She enlists the cooperation of other wives who feel the injustice to their position. Their demands are refused and they strike. The sensational move creates chaos and panic among the husbands of the town of Milford. What happens and how the strike is settled makes a sparkling comedy and meets with enthusiastic applause.

Joie Ray's Erstwhile Fleet Feet Now Shuffle in Dance Marathon

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 25.—The magical, winged feet of Joie Ray which have won him 850 cups and medals but very little of this world's goods in 22 years of racing, have been reduced to a shuffle in the shuffle of the dance marathon.

The man who won the red, white and blue in three Olympic games and who has reached his thirty-seventh milestone, has danced through more than 1,200 hours at the current Atlantic City marathon contest, a far cry from the marathons Joie won in days past.

Joie was introduced to marathon dancing at Newark in January. This is his third try.

There is something a little touching when the master of ceremonies calls Joie to the platform in the midst of the heavy-eyed, ceaseless shuffle and goes through the daily catechism.

He asks Joie about his races and records. Then he asks Joie to show the audience his strides. He circles

My Beauty Hint

BY BARBARA STANWYCK

THE old maxim about brushing the hair 100 times before retiring is a splendid rule to observe if you wish to have bright, lustrous hair.

First I run my fingers through my hair, with a half-massage stroke. Then, with a fairly white-toothed comb, I remove the tangles.

With a stiff brush I brush it briskly with a back-from-the-face and downward movement. As a result, my hair has an added lustre and glow.

DOUBLE BILL

AT STATE

A double feature, starring Edna Oliver and Hobart Bosworth in "Fanny Foley Herself" and Lionel Atwill and Greta Nissen in "The Silent Witness" will be presented today and Thursday at the State theater.

The character of Fanny Foley, portrayed by Edna Oliver is a tale as intriguing as the actress herself. Lionel Atwill as the father of Bramwell Fletcher in "The Silent Witness" takes the center of the plot when he confesses it is he who kills beautiful Greta Nissen, his son's friend, in her love nest. At this point a surprise witness bolts into the courtroom and reveals the true murderer and Atwill is exonerated.

MENJOU-MARSH

"Bachelor's Affairs," a fast moving comedy, affords smart entertainment for theater patrons at the Ohio for three days this week. Adolphe Menjou as the intriguing bachelor is led to the altar by Joan Marsh, the beautiful but dumb girl he meets on an ocean liner. The trip to the altar is guided by Joan's sister, who can only boast of brains. The trio spend the honeymoon at Menjou's luxurious home in Florida.

Joan falls in love with a handsome architect, Arthur Pierson, and complications arise when the pair is arrested on the public highway. Their elopement is prevented by the world-wise sister who convinces Menjou that she has been at home all the time and the climax is reached when the architect's wife puts in an appearance at the estate.

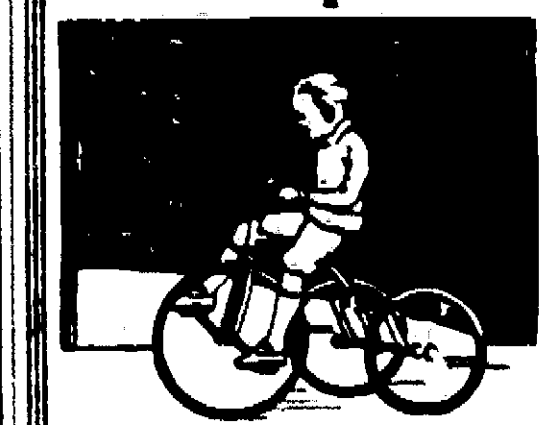

The picture is provided with gorgeous settings on the ocean liner and also at the Florida home of the millionaire.

The picture runs through Thursday.

Short Locks Is Stylist's Edict
for Milady's Summer Hair Dress

BY JOSEPHINE HUDDLESTON

DESPITE the number of proclamations which have been issued to the effect that the fair sex will wear short hair again this summer, the die-hards still argue with me about it.

Not only do my personal friends look at me in a grieved way when I say the hair is going to be worn short, but loads of my readers have written almost pleading with me to tell them that it isn't so.

Of course, any mode can be launched, but whether it reaches a successful climax depends upon you women, yourselves. If you don't want to wear your hair short this summer let it stay long. If you don't cut your hair, however, you are going to have difficulty wearing many of the Summer hats, and you are going to be plenty uncomfortable during July and August.

Hats Require Short Hair
To the list of notable stylists, both in clothes and beauty, who decree short hair for American women for this Summer, is now added the name of Ferdinand Graf, the hair styles of many of our pet movie stars.

His point is that women will wear, generally, two types of hats, big floppy ones for dress occasions and small beret types of hats for sports. Such hats according to this authority "require that the hair come down over the forehead so that the bald-like appearance which marked them when millinery last disregarded hair styles will not be present."

He also states that American women are becoming more and more out-of-doors people, and that any woman who attempts the long-haired coiffures during her out-of-doors activities is not likely to look alluring when she returns from her golf, tennis, swimming or yachting.

He suggests also that necklines be given every consideration, for many of the hats are up off the back of the neck, making a decorative touch below the hat a necessity. He does not mean elaborate back coiffure grooming, such as rinklets, puffs or like arrangements, but the attainment of a simple yet finished grooming of the back of the head, which will complete the ensemble.

Personally, my belief is that when really hot weather descends, the majority of women will let themselves scissorward, even if hat styles and sports ensembles should not encourage the ideal. Once we've enjoyed short hair, few of us can resist anything that will add to our comfort during the torrid season.

As a word of encouragement for women whose hair grows slowly, and who therefore might be deterred from their clipping impulse, let me suggest that, although long hair will reign again this coming Fall and Winter, modified coiffures, are being worked out which won't require the hair to be as long as it was during the last formal season.

Ten Years.

The treaty between the United States and Canada for the St. Lawrence seaway has been awaited so long that attachment of the signatures is an anti-climax. At this juncture citizens of both nations are more concerned with ratification of the treaty by their legislative bodies.

One statement in President Hoover's explanation of the treaty will interest many Americans who have grown skeptical of promises, regardless of their source. Speaking of the 10 years' time that will be required to finish the seaway after the treaty is ratified, Mr. Hoover says that "normal growth of traffic in the nation will far more than compensate for any diversions from American railways and other American port facilities."

The statement is a needed reminder to enthusiasts of the seaway that there are those whose interests prevent them from considering it in any way but as a threat to their interests. An ocean vessel making port with a cargo at Cleveland, for instance, means a loss of business to some seacoast port and to a railroad, which otherwise would handle the material.

This loss, says the President, will be more than made up in the decade and more that will elapse before the seaway is open, by an increase in commercial traffic. There will be a general inclination to shy at this statement. Bitter experience has taught formerly trusting Americans that no man possesses the supernatural foresight to speak with any certainty concerning what will happen so far in the future.

At a time when international trade is being choked by international difficulties with tariff, and when predictions are being made freely that, barring unexpected success from an international economic conference, the tendency will be for nations to live more and more within their own borders, a vast project to open the rich areas of the Middle West to international commerce necessarily must be viewed with some doubt. It may be worse than getting the cart before the horse; it may turn out to be a cart with no horse at all.

Julius J. Jusserand.

The United States has no counterpart of Julius Jusserand, diplomatist and author and great French citizen, who died in Paris Monday. His career diplomats do not get important posts. Men like Jusserand, who started to learn about the handling of international relationships in his early 20's, are not rewarded with assignments of long standing to major posts.

For 23 years he was a prominent figure in Washington diplomatic circles, where he was respected doubly for his achievements as an author and diplomat. From 1902 to 1925, covering an intensely important period of relationship between France and this nation, he was an able and respected holder of a great trust.

Friendship between his nation and the United States was his ideal. In recent years, since his retirement, he had seen that ideal shattered and twisted by misunderstandings which seemed to defy all attempts at correction. He died an unhappy man in his outlook on the future of Franco-American relationships.

Taking It Too Seriously.

If Republicans all wore purple uniforms with yellow decorations, Democrats all wore green uniforms with red decorations, Socialists all wore pink uniforms with blue decorations and all these add other political factions in the United States would make a practice of marching in formation and staring hostilely at all members of the opposition American undertakers might do as good a business as German undertakers usually do when political excitement runs high. Remembering the vocal demonstrations of the gallery gods at the Chicago convention, the skeptical American will suspect that they probably would do better—much better.

It is the besetting sin of the German people that they take their politics too seriously. Belying their supposedly phlegmatic temperament, they can crack more heads and spill more blood over the matter of who shall hold a public office than their neighbors, the French. Perhaps that same phlegmatic temperament is responsible for their deadly earnestness when aroused. Combined with what they realize is a tense hour in German politics, it is sufficient to cause talk of arming members of political parties, so that they may prevail more easily in the give-and-take of electioneering.

In Berlin last week 15 persons were killed in demonstrations—and the election still two weeks away. There is every reason to believe that if no check were to be placed on the organized and uniformed parties during the remainder of the campaign Germany would produce a daily political casualty list that would put to shame the mortality count in a Chinese war. Americans, who fight their political battles with words and who have trouble distinguishing members of one party from another, even when they speak, are incredulous when they are told that all Germany can do is to control the belligerents is to order them to cease marching in multi-

Without Opposition

Opposition exposed to arise against the county home rule amendment, proposed to bring local government in Ohio up to date, has been significantly absent. Apparently there is no body of opinion, inside enough to have a voice, which objects to the efforts being made all over the state to initiate the amendment by means of petitions, now in general circulation. Or is an ambush being prepared for election time?

It is important to remember that the amendment, if adopted, would permit reorganization; it would not enforce reorganization. There are some counties in the state, perhaps a considerable number, which would be unwilling to go to the bother of reorganizing their government. There are others which would follow the line of inaction common in popular government and do nothing. There are still others, however, which have been straining at their restrictions for years; in them action would be immediate and conclusive. It is for their sake that the amendment is being advocated.

The palpable fairness of allowing counties to organize their governments according to their respective needs is the strongest point in favor of the amendment. Every possible safeguard against minority coercion has been established; no action is permitted by the people affected by it. It is pleasant to believe that lack of opposition to the amendment is a sign that Ohio has been convinced by its own common sense that there is neither room nor cause for opposition.

Rising Politician.

Perhaps it will be recorded this way in a "Who's Who" of the future: "Tunney, Gene, politician . . . former heavyweight boxing champion of the world . . . etc." It might be recorded thus now, if Mr. Tunney were to be given recognition unexpectedly in the exclusive register.

There have been few better opportunities to observe without interruption the rising of a politician. Probably before he fought his last round in the ring, itself the center of intense political activity, Mr. Tunney was looking ahead to the possibilities of another career in the public gaze—a career in politics. There was his appointment as a colonel on the staff of Connecticut's scholarly Governor Cross, a meaningless post to any one but a politically ambitious young man. There have been, since then, a multiplying number of incidents—Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion, has been seen and heard here and there, always in the right place.

For a time there were rumors that he had ideas of becoming a senator some day. They ceased to circulate, but not their subject. Prominent among those participating in the great popular struggle at Chicago was Mr. Tunney. He was making no attempt to hide the fact that he has his shoes off and intended to wade into politics as far as he could go.

He seems to be in it up to his neck. Concurrently with an announcement that he will exert himself on the stump for that other prominent eastern Democrat, Franklin D. Roosevelt, information is broadcast that the next member of the New York boxing commission will be Gene Tunney. The chairman-ship of the commission soon to be vacated by James A. Farley, Candidate Roosevelt's national manager, is one of the springboard positions in the land for an ambitious politician. It will be highly surprising if a muscular and cultured young man, who made himself famous and wealthy by fighting with his fists, does not occupy that springboard soon with serious purpose of launching another large-scale political career into the mainstream of public opinion.

All Hope Is Gone.

Federal detectives assigned to the Lindbergh case in the hope of drawing the net of revengeful society so tight that the criminal or criminals could not escape are back at their regular jobs. Revengeful society, made to look foolish by the inability of its professional police to do anything about its wishes, must be satisfied to retire silently, to face the painful realization of its helplessness as stoically as possible.

The burden of the blame for failure in the Lindbergh case has been placed, by popular opinion, on the New Jersey state police in whose jurisdiction the crime was committed. It is useless and needlessly cruel to repeat or to try to remember all the dangerous omissions of sound police procedure made by the organization. To speak of them in Ohio, which had no state police and no apparent desire for them, would be both an explanation of that lack of desire and an admission that the state has not tried to protect itself with a state constabulary. Ohio has no right to criticize.

It is easy to recover from a shock. There was a time, not long ago, when it seemed to millions of Americans that they never would erase from their minds the ghastly imprint of this nation's most sensationally brutal crime. Already the Lindbergh case and the surge of impulse for protection which followed it are forgotten, except for its traces on memory. The release of federal detectives from their assignments to the case virtually closes the record. There is nothing more to enter; all hope is gone.

Comment of the Press

MACHINE AGE.

Ethelbert Stewart, recently retired commissioner of labor statistics in the department of labor, believes that the present economic situation is the inevitable development of the increase in machine efficiency. Speaking before the Institute of Public Affairs at the University of Virginia, Mr. Stewart said:

"The inventions of machinery have made the employment of human labor unnecessary and unprofitable to an extent very little comprehended by the general public. It is probable that 60 per cent of the people now at work could, if given full time occupation, produce all the market will demand."

We see how this works out in Toledo for example in the repair and improvement of streets. The federal bureau of labor statistics is authority for the following:

A Toledoan, employed to operate a ditch-digging machine, can, with the aid of one helper, do as much work in one hour as 44 men using hand shovels could do in the same period.

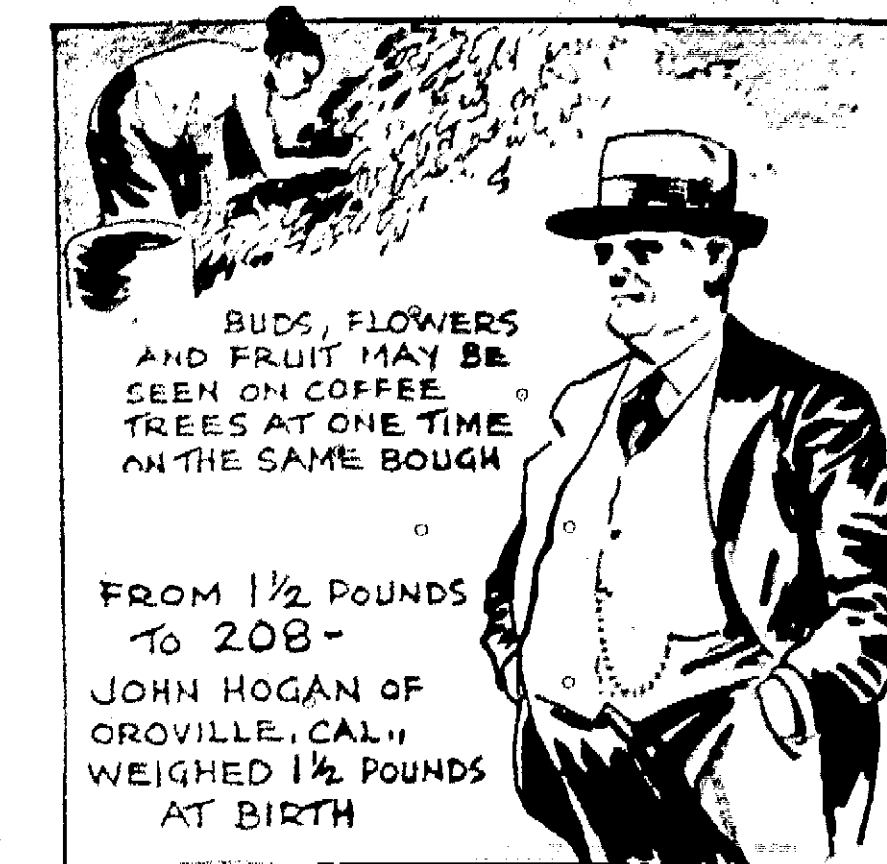

A man operating an air compressor chisel can in 15 minutes break through the pavement for a re-pick job while it would take a man using a hand pick and sledge two hours.

A man operating such a device could remove three times more cubic yard of other surface from a street than normal labor in the same given period. Quite obviously these labor saving devices are throwing millions of men into unemployment, creating a labor surplus that can not be absorbed even in good times.

Speaking at the institute, Mr. Stewart followed up his remarks by saying that no solution could be hoped for unless a universal five-day week for in-

Daily Guide to Health

BY DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND.

Guarding from Sunstroke Very Important.

During the summer months, when the sun is hot and there is great humidity, persons are frequently overcome by the heat. In a large city the ambulance physicians daily treat many cases of sunstroke.

Disturbance in the heat regulation machinery of the body is the cause of sunstroke. It is most common in elderly people, but may occur in any one excessively exposed to sun and heat. The afflicted person becomes pale, has difficulty of vision, feels weak and nauseated and collapses. The skin becomes clammy and wet and the pulse rapid and weak. Breathing is more rapid and the pupils of the eyes become dilated.

After recovery from the attack, the victim of heat stroke is sensitive to high temperature and must be careful to guard against exposure.

There is a more severe form of sunstroke which may prove fatal. In this form the individual quickly becomes unconscious and the skin, instead of being clammy, is dry and hot, while the temperature of the body is unusually high. Muscular twitchings and rolling of the head may cause the condition to be taken for epilepsy.

Sunstroke requires the attention of a physician. Until he arrives, keep the patient in a cool room. His clothing should be opened and he should be encouraged to drink water. If the body is placed in water kept cool by means of ice until the temperature of the body falls to 102 degrees Fahrenheit. While he is in the tub, massage the skin vigorously. This will stimulate the circulation and cool the overheated blood.

Such an attack may prove to be serious, and prevention is far easier to accomplish than a cure. During hot weather, as a preventative, bathe often and rest as much as possible. Elderly persons and children should be warned against exposure to extreme heat and the direct rays of the sun. Strenuous work should be avoided on hot days.

If you have a headache after being in the sun, stop your work, lie down in a cool place, loosen your clothing and apply cold water to your face and hands. Do not resume work until headache and other disturbances have disappeared.

Summer time demands care for those at the extremes of life. Vacations should be started with gradual exposure to the sun. To rush to the tennis courts or anywhere else in the open is a mistake. Even the beach is dangerous if its joys are overused the first day or two.

Cold drinks in excess and over-eating are unwise in hot weather. Temperance in all things should be the rule.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUESTIONS

"Yours Truly." Q.—Do you advise an operation for rupture? A.—This is the only definite cure, but whether to be operated or not depends on the age, personal health and state of the heart.

Mrs. A.L.T. Q.—What do you advise for liver spots? A.—Send self-addressed envelope for full particulars and repeat your question.

T.A. Q.—How can I gain weight? A.—You should eat plenty of good nourishing food, including milk, eggs, cereals, fresh fruits and vegetables. Sleep as many hours as possible, practice deep breathing. Sufficient rest is also essential. Take cod liver oil as a general tonic and builder. Copyright, 1932, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Highlights of Ohio History

INDIANS ABOUT COLUMBUS.

The Indians generally withdrew from the vicinity of the present state capital after the signing of the treaty of Greenville in the late summer of 1795. The treaty also cleared Delaware county and a portion of Union county of Indians, only a few remaining in that section who had in a measure conformed to the customs of the whites.

One of these was a middle-aged Indian known as Billy Wyandott, a peaceable man when sober, but too often drunk, in which condition he was boisterous and pugnacious. One winter day when in his cups, he insisted on demonstrating how he had pursued a bear into the river and killed it. So realistic was his demonstration that he plunged into the icy waters and was drowned.

But even after the treaty, many parties of Indians came to Franklinton, which was near to the treaty line, and which afforded them opportunities to trade their presence, nevertheless, was more or less dreaded, because each visit of a party usually ended in a drunken brawl.

New York Day by Day

New York, July 20.—Ten-cent-a-dance ladies have come into sudden competition with the chorus girls in attracting the Johnnies. Here, before the taxi dancer received attention chiefly from the hard-boiled young sports of the trucks and basement counters. She was a gum-chewing "dancer" and "dancer."

But Tim R. Alley glorified her in a popular legend. Short stories in a popular legend coupled with a film story, "Child of Manhattan," added to her fame. And then a youth of social register parentage, quit college and eloped with a plating member of the guild.

Gold Coast slimmers in tall hats begin to drop in to the "spiel with a twist." The depression, too, inspired a change in personnel by recruiting beautiful girls temporarily unable to find employment on the stage or as mannikins in the dressmaking establishments.

Today, some unusually attractive hostesses are dancing with all comers in various temples clustering about the Tenderloin. The periodically haphazard clip-joints feature the brazen hostesses and spitt-addition, but there are a number of places on the square.

O. yes, De Casseres announces his magazine will not only haggle over niceties of diction, but pay respects to certain literary and artistic thimbles who will be delectable to the lady-bugs of the magazine.

ARE THEY UNREASONABLE? Men complain that women are unreasonable. And some women complain that men are unreasonable.

But what encouragement do women get to be reasonable? Who is it that gets all the petting and cooing, as well as all the jewels and spending money?

Is it the sweet, reasonable, unselfish woman, who economizes on "facials," curls her own hair and does her own manicuring? Is it the understanding, self-sacrificing woman, who would rather wear her old clothes and drive an old silver than keep her husband's nose to the grindstone?

Is it the woman who never pouts or weeps or nags, when she can't have a new hat or a new car or a new slave-bracelet—who never makes a fuss or goes into a tantrum?

Oh, yes, of course it is—not. That sweet, reasonable woman is permitted to go right on being "reasonable and self-sacrificing," and wearing made-over hats and five-and-ten-jewelry, just as long as she will, while little Mrs. Storm-and-Strife gets everything she frets for, including tender devotion. Everything and anything—to keep her quiet.

Gibson Hits Homer with Sacks Full To Beat Presbie

FOUR-BASE WALLOP STOPS BISHOP NINE

Calvary-Presby Score 4-1; Lee Street on Top, 6-4; Irish Triumph; Epworth No. 1 Loses.

By BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor, The Star

If any one had suggested two weeks ago that the first Presbyterian softball team would lose two successive ball games he would have been laughed down. It just didn't look possible when the team had its full strength on the field. However, that little thing is just what has happened. Lee Street Presbyterians put the skids under last season's city champions last week and Calvary gave them another shove downward yesterday to a tune of 4-1 count. Calvary's victory over the Presbies jumps the latter backward into third place, a full game behind St. Mary in first and a half game behind Lee Street in second.

Lee Street won the right to undisputed possession of second yesterday by taking an eight-inning decision from the Epworth Bishops. St. Mary retained its position at the top of the list by smothering the Lutherans 12-2. Trinity Baptist flattened the oft-beaten Epworth No. 1 team under a 17-4 shellacking.

The erstwhile league-leading Presbyterians learned to their dismay that a ball game is not over as long as Myron Gibson has yet to bat. The free swinging clubber who romps in left field for Calvary, came to bat in the seventh after two men had singled and one walked to join the sacks. Gibson calmly looked at one of Shoemaker's tosses and rapped it out of the lot for a circuit trip, four runs coming in. Right there went the hopes of a Presbyterian victory. The previous home run of Bacon which had appeared an insurmountable obstacle was booted right out of existence.

Bacon's homer came in the third inning with the hasecks deserted and was probably the longest ever hit in softball here. Playing on the new Shovel diamond the ball traveled clear across Uncapher avenue. That, gentlemen, is a terrific wallop in any ball game.

Shoemaker failed to finish the game for the Presbies. Bacon came to his assistance following Gibson's man had singled following Gibson's homer. Shoemaker pitched no-hit ball for four innings. Walt Baldwin allowed the hard hitting Presbies only three hits, a really neat performance.

Once Too Often

Mike Braham doesn't hit home runs very often. The Epworth Bishops wish he didn't hit them even as often as he does. It was Mike's fourth-ply clout with Jimmy Kerr on base that broke up the ball game in the eighth and beat the Bishops 6-4. Lee Street jumped into an early lead over the Bishops by tallying two runs in the first and adding another pair in the third, the four coming partly as a result of some solid base knocks and partly as the result of some ragged play by the Bishops. The Bishops promptly set in motion the hoodoo which has been working so long against the Lee Street nine and tied the count in the sixth frame. Everything went

FRISCO YOUTH TOPS PUBLINKS TOURNEY

By The Associated Press
LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20.—Charles Ferrara, San Francisco youth who won the national public links title a year ago, found his throne seriously challenged today by four other youngsters from widely separated states.

The quartet had 71 each, one better than par on Shawnee Park's course, and right behind them came two others with par as compared to the 76 that Ferrara carded. Ferrara appeared to be under the necessity of getting closer to par today to get into the match play starting Thursday, for the first day's scores indicated it would take 150 or better to qualify.

Columbus, O., got away to the leadership in the inter-city match for the Harding cup, its four-man team totalling 302. Louisville was next among the 33 contesting teams with 303.

AMATEUR BOXERS TO COMPETE IN TOURNEY

North Central Ohio Simon Pure Mitt Carnival Here Starting Aug. 11.

A previous golden gloves amateur boxing tournament having been a success here some months ago plans have been laid for a second tourney to be held here on four successive Friday nights starting Aug. 11. H. A. Tarr of 197 W. Center street is sponsoring the tourney. It will be held at the outdoor arena at the Marion Steam Shovel athletic field on Uncapher avenue.

Any amateur fighter between the ages of 18 and 25 is eligible to compete, Tarr said, in announcing his tournament plans. Boxers will be paired according to weights, it being planned to have matches in all of the eight regular weight classifications.

Entries for the tourney may be filed anytime. They should be left at room 9 in the Leetonia building on West Center street. Anyone from the North Central district of the state may compete in this tourney glove fest. Inasmuch as this territory includes quite a lot more than that of the previous tourney, Tarr is hopeful an even larger entry list may be obtained this time than last.

AMERICA LIKELY TO MAKE POOR SHOWING ABOVE 400 METERS

Carr-Eastman Feud Does Little To Help Outlook for Yanks.

By The Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Since the final American track and field tryouts, it has become clear again that this country will have difficulty trying to win any foot-racing honors over 400 meters.

It took some extraordinary measures, plus the rare fighting spirit of Ray Barbuti, to put over a single winner on the Olympic track four years ago. The chance this year to distribute our middle distance talent to the best advantage was "blown" when the feud sprang up over the rival merits of Bill Carr and Ben Eastman.

Until Carr came along to explode the myth of Eastman's invincibility, the supposition was that Big Ben could be counted on to clean up the Olympic 400 and 800. His defeat, instead of convincing his admirers of the obvious, led to his coach's insistence upon a return duel. Not only was this last, in another record race with Carr, but Eastman was lost to the 800 lineup and both will fight it out again in the 400 here.

Eastman's chances to turn the tables will be better on the Olympic track, where the 400 will be run in lanes.

Carr has never been beaten at 400 meters or 440 yards. Until he whipped Eastman, however, he was best known as a member of Penn's crack mile relay team. Similarly, Eastman, since reaching his best college stride, has never been pressed at 880 yards or 800 meters, though he can romp most any route briskly.

The two foreigners most likely to extend Carr and Eastman in the Olympic 400 are Alex Wilson of Canada, known to competition in this country as a representative of Notre Dame, and Lieutenant G. L. Rampling of England. Wilson's teammate, Jimmy Ball, just failed to nip Barbuti at the tape in the Olympic final four years ago and will also have to be watched.

SAM RICE HONORED BY WASHINGTON CLUB

Veteran Outfielder Celebrates Seventeenth Baseball Season with Senators.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 20.—Sam Rice, who has been with the Senators 17 years, is willing to vouch for the fact that there still is sentiment in baseball.

Yesterday was "Sam Rice" day out at the American league ball park. Besides the tributes, Sam was to get all ticket receipts above the usual 5,000 Tuesday crowd.

But when tabulators finished their work, they found only 5,093 customers. President Clark Griffith of the Nationals telephoned Frank Xavin of the Detroit Tigers with the result that they decided the usual Tuesday crowd this time should be considered 3,000.

Hence Rice gets about $2,000 as his share of the purse instead of less than $100.

Two Protests Thrown Out by Softball Board

During a lengthy session which lasted nearly three hours the city softball commission last night disposed of a pair of protests and some other important business. The two protests concerned games played between the C. D. & M. and Gasco clubs of the Industrial league and Christian Seniors and Christian No. 1 teams of the No. 2 Sunday school league.

Neither of the protests were allowed. The games will stand as originally decided, the Gasco and Seniors being winners by scores of 5-4 and 6-5 respectively.

The games scheduled next Tuesday between St. Mary and First Presbyterians of the No. 1 Sunday school league will not be played on that date. On agreement of both managers and the consent of the commission the contest has been changed one day and will be played on Wednesday as a benefit game. The proceeds will go to further playground work among the kids of the city.

Two games of the Christian Seniors have also been changed. The final two games on the Christian Seniors' schedule in which the Epworth Seniors and First Reformed are the opponents have been postponed. Two of the first team members of the Christian combine will be in Camp Perry with the O. N. C. during the time in which the games are scheduled. Inasmuch as the absence is enforced the games have been moved back.

One member of the Christian No. 1 team was indefinitely suspended in connection with the protested game between that team and the Seniors.

MINNEAPOLIS DROPS TILT TO LOUISVILLE

Millers Lose Half Game, Now Lead Association by Five Games.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, July 20.—Just when Minneapolis was beginning to feel certain of assistance from its sister city, St. Paul, in American Association affairs, the Saints let the Millers down.

Minneapolis yesterday found Louisville, especially young Archie McKain, too much to handle, and took an 8 to 2 beating. The Millers also lost one game of a double-header to the Colonels Monday, but St. Paul stepped up and knocked Indianapolis over.

Yesterday, however, the Saints failed even to get started against Indianapolis who won a pair, 10 to 3, and 14 to 6. That reduced Minneapolis' lead over the Indians to four games.

McKain, Louisville's southpaw ace, choked Minneapolis off with six hits, and smacked in four runs with a home run and a double. Homers also were belted by Al Funk and Art Weis.

Columbus won its second straight over Milwaukee and its fourth in a row, 8 to 4. Paul Dean was in difficulty much of the time, but managed to tighten up in the pinches.

Toledo turned Belye Bean loose against Kansas City in a night game and came up with a 8 to 0 victory. Bean allowed the Blues only four hits, while Max Thomas and Hobo Carson were hit hard and often.

AMATEUR BOXERS TO TRY FOR OLYMPICS

Simon Pures Open Trial Battles Tonight in San Francisco Ring.

By The Associated Press
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., July 20.—The pick of United States amateur boxers gather tonight for the opening of trials for America's team for the forthcoming Olympic games.

From the eastern seaboard to Hawaii, are assembled nearly 100 simon pures of 20 states and a territory. Heretofore, the eight performers who wore Uncle Sam's shield were the national A. A. U. champions.

This year the Olympic committee voted to make the trial of an invitational nature. The entry list therefore will include the A. A. U. titleholders, seven national intercollegiate standard bearers and a host of other outstanding boxers. California leads in the number of candidates with 22. New York will be represented by a dozen campaigners.

BATTALINO POUNDED BY FRANK PETROLLE

Former Feather Champ Gets Sound Lacing in New York Fight.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 20.—It is unfortunate for Chris (Bat) Battalino that he neither can "take" the members of the Petrolle family nor leave them alone.

The former featherweight champion's ring career has suffered more than somewhat from the fact that he first thought he could lick Billy, the old Fargo express, and then, failing in that, decided to take it out on the younger brother, Frankie.

Billy plastered Bat twice, almost ruining the Hartford Italian in each instance, and now Frankie has made it an even four triumphs for the tough Petrolle family over its most persistent rival.

Last night Frankie knocked Bat about for the second time in two weeks to gain a 10-round decision. He couldn't stop the batter, as Billy did in their memorable meeting during the winter, but he did the next best thing by knocking him flat in the fourth round for a nine count.

Playing without the injury Ruth, the Yankees got fourth straight from the Sox, 6 to 3, with Lefty hanging up his 18th victory Washington Senators 6 "Sam Rice day" by dropping third in a row to Detroit.

Wes Ferrell yielded or scattered hits as the Cleveland blanks Boston, 7 to 1, tell this came into his story, which is top for both The Philadelphia Athletics out two decisions over 8 to 9 to 8 and 16 to 6.

W. C. BAVE DIES AT MENTOR TODAY
Mrs. B. W. Brady of 312 Kensington Place has received word of the death of her brother-in-law, Walter C. Bave, formerly of this city, which occurred early this afternoon at his home in Mentor. The message did not state the cause of death.

He was about 50 years of age and is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Nan Marsh, a daughter and son, both at home. The family moved from Marion to Mentor about four years ago. Mrs. Brady will go to Mentor Thursday to attend the funeral.

LASSIE STAKES ON TOP AT ARLINGTON

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, July 20.—Eight owners went gunning today for another of Arlington Park's heavy purses, the $10,000 added Lassie Stakes, for two year old fillies. As usual, the east appeared to have the edge with the Wheatley stables' Edelweiss and A. Pons' Swivel, the overnight favorites for the event. The distance was six furlongs. With eight nominees accepting the issue, the gross value would be $28,250. Edelweiss and Swivel were held 2 to 1, with the Audley farm stables' Hilena, E. R. Bradley's Barn Swallow and Mrs. H. H. Whitney's Scream also figured for strong backing.

The rest of the prospective field included technique from the Beaumont stable, W. R. P. S. Sunny Queen and E. A. Carreanda's Vasta.

All Clubs Alike to Lonnie Warneke

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, July 20.—A peek at the statistics reveals that all National league clubs look alike to Lonnie Warneke, the Chicago Cubs' young right-handed hitting star, but the Cincinnati Reds and the New York Giants are his favorites.

Warneke yesterday accounted for his fourteenth triumph of the campaign, and in so doing scored his third straight victory over the Cardinals. Against the Reds, he has won four and lost one, the latter an 11-inning affair.

He has liked each club at least once. Brooklyn was the last to be added to the list. He has defeated the Cardinals and Boston twice each, and Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and Philadelphia once.

Only Philadelphia, Cincinnati and the Dodgers had decisions over the tall Arkansan. He has worked 19 complete games and today had a live winning streak of seven games.

KLEINMAIER'S

O.G. proves its case

Scientific tests upset claims of rival brands
Give verdict to Old Gold, as coolest, throat-easiest cigarette

CLUB WOMEN INTERESTED IN CIGARETTE PURITY WITNESS OLD GOLD SCIENTIFIC VICTORY
Mrs. Oliver C. Harriman, Mrs. Julian Gerard, and Mrs. William Thaw III, keen spectators of the Calorimeter test showing the greater coolness of OLD GOLD, in comparison with 3 other leading brands.

PROOF!... that's what you want in a cigarette advertisement. You can't smoke claims. You're entitled to evidence.

But do you get it... when an ad simply says: "My cigarette is better?"

OLD GOLD doesn't expect to win you by unsupported adjectives alone. But it does ask you to consider the findings of a great testing laboratory... as checked by scientists of two leading universities... then draw your own conclusions!

These laboratories made a "cool" test of 4 leading cigarette brands... and accurate, impartial scientific test. They repeated it 75 times. And consistently, the smoke of an OLD GOLD was shown to be the coolest, and hence the throat-easiest.

Coolness is the clue to quality in a cigarette. Only the finest, smoothest, purest tobacco burns "cool." Only PURE tobacco burns cool. In establishing itself as the coolest smoke, OLD GOLD proves itself the cigarette of purest and choicest tobacco quality; utterly free of hot-burning artificial flavorings.

NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

The Verdict of Science

This is to certify that in 75 repeated cool tests made of the 4 leading cigarette brands... measuring the heat content of each cigarette in B.T.U.s. with the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter, it was shown that:

Old Gold averages 112 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand X
Old Gold averages 155 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand Y
Old Gold averages 156 B.T.U.s. Cooler than Brand Z

The Thermometer test (Fahrenheit) showed Old Gold smoke definitely cooler than that of the other brands.
